The WSOP Main Event 1988 had 167 participants and when they were down to two players, it was between the reigning champion Chan and the inexperienced Seidel. Seidel had knocked out the third and fourth place finishers and was the chip leader when the heads-up battle started. Chan played aggressively and managed to take the chip lead but then Seidel doubled up with pocket nines against pocket eights to take a 3-to-1 chip lead. Chan managed to take back the chip lead (without being all-in) before this final hand: List of casinos in asia
