Perhaps the best way to start is by learning the probability of the hand dealt, combined with the probability of busting when drawing on that hand. Being dealt a 2-16 is the most likely combination, and those are generally considered hands where you have to make a decision on whether to hit or stand. Anything over 16 should be an automatic stand, regardless of what the dealer is showing. Deciding whether to hit or stand is then based upon what the dealer is showing, with the understanding that a 5 or a 6 holds the biggest % chance of him busting, and the % dropping rapidly on either side of the 5 and 6. Bonus Blackjack is a unique version of this beloved table game that has been developed by the masterminds at Microgaming. Blackjack is a classic card game that dates back to 17th century France, where it was known as vingt-et-un, which literally translates to '21'. The goal of the game is for the player to get the value of their hand to reach 21, or as close as possible, without going over. At the same time, the dealer is attempting to do the same thing and whoever is closer to 21 at the end of the round is the winner.
