The first legal casino in Australia was opened in 1973 to start the long age of legal gambling in the country. When online casinos accepting Australia players appeared, no one really paid attention to them until 2001, when the government decided to approve the Interactive Gambling Act to prevent the gambling addiction among the Australian population. The Act made it illegal for the top online casinos for Australian players to offer and advertise most of the online gambling games. The sports betting activities remain legal though, except for the in-game ones (the bets taken during the sports event). online casino free bonus no deposit required
