(In casino rules blackjack wins usually are paid 2 to 1.) The “natural” would happen if they received an Ace and a card valued at 10 in their initial 2 cards. James Suttle was taught the game by a gambler on a losing streak in Las Vegas in exchange for a five thousand dollar loan. Danny Jones failed to sell the game because the game had poor returns to players and so no one wanted to play it. The Jones family were conned out of the Nevada distribution deal never being paid the full amount promised to them.
