Although players are free to play at these online casinos, these casinos are not regulated by Australian jurisdiction. This means that if you have any disputes or feel you have been treated unfairly by an international online casino, the Australian government cannot intervene. This is why it is important for players to choose licenced and registered online casinos so they are protected. Most reputable online casinos are licenced by the Malta Gaming Authority and the UK Gambling Commission among other jurisdictions. The military played a big role in the survival of humanity, and this pokie makes sure to highlight that through an innovative ranking system. As you play more, you'll unlock new ranks that increase your access to the game's special features and different game modes. It's a cool way of adding a promotion system that will entice you to keep playing, while still remaining true to the story the pokie is based on.
