The Iceland's attitude towards the online gambling is very similar to the one of other European countries. There are no legal and approved Iceland online casino sites and the country is not going to issue any licenses to the new online casinos for Iceland players, but most of the best online casinos for Icelander players located abroad are easily acceptable and the players are not prosecuted (unlike those who risk running the online casino ISK in the country). Therefore, we can consider the Icelandic online gambling market to be quite favorable to the players yet pay the special attention while choosing the online or mobile casino in Iceland to make the real money bets.
