This means that in order to make your first withdrawal you need to make bets totalling a whopping $400,000 on various games. And don't forget that only a percentage of your bets counts towards the playthrough requirements, so the true total is a lot higher than that. Now how long do you think this will take you? And if you hit a big win in the first hour of playing, you won't be able to withdraw it at all until you've met the wagering conditions. Country codes 44
