The final casino in the Digimedia Limited network is Vegas Palms. This website often appeals to beginners and low rollers. The initial deposit bonus is much smaller than what you'll find at the other sites: $50 at a 200% rate. That means you get $2 for every $1 you deposit, up to fifty bucks. Deposit $50 and you'll have $150. This is good for low stakes players, because they get more bonus cash than they would at any of the other three sites offered. Also, the VegasPalms website is designed for easy navigation, with all the games listed on a drop down menu. The game lists also show which ones are offered in instant play (about 1/3rd) and which ones you'll have to download (all games come in this format). The casino can be visited via a mobile web browser though they provide no details on compatibility with specific operating systems (iOS, Android, Windows Phone and Blackberry). The number of HTML5 games is fairly small, with about 20 of them at the moment, but other entertaining content (bonuses, promos, comp points, etc.) is the same as in the desktop version of the casino.
