Blackjack has evolved from a card comparing game that was originally played with one single deck of standard playing cards, minus the jokers. Over time, the house edge was reduced and casino profits threatened as some players devised systems of counting cards. This allowed them to judge how many ten point value cards (Ten, Jack, Queen, King) had already been dealt and from there to predict future moves more easily. As a result casino operators began adding more decks to the play. Nowadays, many popular casinos use from four decks up to as many as eight decks altogether in their blackjack games. Bomber scatters appearing on reels 1 and 5 activate the free spins game. In this game, you get 10 free spins and a 2x multiplier on all your wins. Free spins can be reactivated during this feature. Play this video slot and you'll see that it is full of unique features. There are two types of Wild Symbols: one substitutes for people, another for things. You can also meet three pictures of ghosts; their different combinations earn different bonuses for you: Ballroom Busters Bonus and Stay Puft Free Spins Bonus. The first one is about shooting into the highlighted objects and finding a ghost inside. Be attentive, you have only 5 proton shots. The Free Spins feature awards you with Free Spins if you have the combination of three or more Wilds. After every Free Spin Marshmallows can appear on some positions on the reels and turn the symbols into Locked Wilds which remain on the reels till the Free Spins round is played. Casino bonus club
